

Private Harold Olson, of Coopers-town, spoke to a packed house last night at the hall. He told of his trip to France, related some of his experiences at the front, and explained the work he had to perform in the signal corps. His narrative was followed by a three-reel picture of Charlie Chaplin in "A Dog's Life," after which a few people remained to dance.

Mr. and Mrs. August Every enter