

The leap year dance held Friday evening was one of the most enjoyable social events held in Binford for many years. The ladies filled their new places admirably and as usual made the sterner sex toe the mark, and made them like it.