

The concert by the Pekin band in Binford last Thursday evening, was a rare musical treat, and thoroughly enjoyed by the large crowd which packed the opera house to its seating capacity. The first part of the program consisted of numbers by the band and every number was perfectly rendered. The second part included selections by the orchestra, violin duets, vocal and piano solos. Each number was heartily applauded and responded to cheerfully with encores. Following the concert the floor was cleared and dancing continued until late. It was one of the most enjoyable entertainments given in Binford for a long time. The Times man feels a little envious that Pekin has such a splendid musical organization and we are compelled to take a back seat. They have been very fortunate in having a first class instructor to teach and direct them, and while it is true that it costs some money to maintain the standard of their organization, it is nevertheless worth the price in the enjoyment they receive from it and the advertising that naturally comes to their town as a result.
