

Rev. J. P. Simon, an Armenian, spoke to a large audience in the opera house Monday evening. While he was a little hard to understand at times, he gave an interesting account of conditions in Armenia, under the rule of the Turks. He was given a generous contribution for the suffering, war-stricken people of his country.

County Agent Jackson has sent