

Although the weather was very disagreeable Monday evening, many folks turned out to attend the concert given by Thorstein and Anna Skarning. They gave a very creditable entertainment, and were well received.