

Postmaster Knapp has received a communication asking for information concerning Axel Jermainson, who had been in the army and gave his address as Binford. A distinguished service medal is awaiting him.