

pany in Texas.

On Tuesday evening, following the regular meeting of the Rebekah lodge, the members enjoyed a costume party in the lodge rooms. Not only was the ragged, hungry-looking "Weary Willie" represented, but the Red Cross nurse, shepherdess, Martha Washington, soldier-boys, and many other characters. Dancing was the diversion for the evening, which ended with a fine lunch.

Escholtz-Baker Co. will give