

Rebekah District Meeting.

Tuesday afternoon about twenty-five of our people autoed to Wimbledon to attend the Rebekah District meeting.

Arriving about 8:00 p. m., we were met by the sisters of Wimbledon and taken to the home of Mrs. Moore, where a bountiful repast was provided for all, after partaking of which we repaired to the hall.

The lodges of Dazey, Carrington, and Valley City were also well represented.

The evening session of the District meeting opened at 8:30 with Sister President Bertina Nelson, of Valley City, in the chair. After singing America the meeting was formally opened for the business brought before it.

Sister Muir, president of the assembly, was given the Honors of the degree, and seated at Sister Nelsons right.

The following officers being nominated and elected were installed by Sister Muir:

President, Sister Clauson, Wimbledon.

Vice President, Sister Hattie Kelley, Dazey.

Secretary and Treasurer, Sister Cannon of Binford.

Wild Rose lodge exemplified the work of initiating a class of three members into Forget-me-not lodge.

Various committee reports were read and placed on file.

Sister President Muir gave a very interesting and instructive as well as pleasing address, saying in part: "The world needs Odd Fellowship, and Odd Fellowship needs women, just as long as there is a human heart to comfort and a tear to dry, and when these disappear Odd Fellowship will have performed its mission, then we will surrender our charter and go out of existence, but until then we intend to grow and prosper."

Yes we will help you, brothers,

Help you till the Master's gavel falls,

And then with you open in that grand degree,

In the Lodge with Jasper walls.

The reading by Mrs. Marquisee, and the address of welcome and deserving of mention.

The district meeting closed in due form by the incoming president, Sister Clausen, after which a lap supper was served in the hall. Then we departed for our homes voting this district meeting one of the best we had ever attended and classing Wimbledon as a royal entertainer and bounteous in hospitality. — A Sister Rebekah.
