

Red Cross workers have been called upon to do some more knitting. These knitted garments will be distributed among the European refugees who are sorely in need of them. While this work is not obligatory it is hoped that this call will meet with a generous response. Directions for these knitted articles have been sent to the chapters and may be obtained from them thru the local branch.

Miss Inez Hemerlin started out on