

Last Friday the ladies of the local Red Cross finished up all the garments needed to complete their quota to supply one-eightieth of a base hospital, and sent their box together with a number of knitted articles to the chapter at Cooperstown. This consignment consisted of 3 bath robes, 12 comfort kits; 33 pair socks, 15 sweaters, 15 scarfs, 5 helmets, 6 pair wristlets, and 7 pair thumbless mittens. The chairman wishes to announce to the ladies who are knitting for the Red Cross that they can obtain yarn as the lodge rooms on Fridays, between the hours of three and four.
