

A beautiful knitted quilt is on display in the window of the drug store this week. The work of knitting the blocks and putting them together was done by the pupils of the intermediate room for the Junior Red Cross. We understand this is the second quilt knitted in this county.