

THE JUNIOR RED CROSS TAG DAY

Binford School Children Will Pull off Novel Stunt to Raise Funds For Supplies.

Junior Red Cross tag day Saturday.

The faculty of the Binford school has devised a novel plan to provide funds for the Junior Red Cross.

Next Saturday, March 2, the children will conduct a thorough canvass of every home and business place in Binford to dispose of tags at ten cents each for the purpose of raising sufficient money to purchase material for the making of Red Cross war supplies.

All of the money received from memberships in the Junior Red Cross can be used for the purchase of supplies, and although a large percentage of the school enrollment has paid the fee of 25 cents, there is still an insufficient sum in the treasury to provide material enough to all those who are willing to do their bit.

Hence, this tag day

No one is exempt from wearing a tag next Saturday nor will you be limited to the purchase of only one. A large quantity will be printed—so buy one for each member of the family and fill your pockets—or wear 'em if you want to.

Don't disappoint the children when they approach you. The Times urges you to be liberal. A dime isn't much, and multiplied a few times, it isn't much more.
