

Mrs. Lewis concluded festivities.

Mrs. F. G. Lewis, chairman of the local Red Cross Chapter, announces that the Red Cross society will meet every Thursday hereafter instead of Fridays. As the ladies intend to make up some more hospital garments, they ask that anyone having sewing machines to spare to please let them know.