

many years.

When you send your children to school tomorrow (Friday) morning hand them your contribution to the Red Cross, one dollar for each adult member in the family, and one dollar for the magazine for one year. The teachers are asked to take care of the contributions as they come in. The drive for membership is being made this week with a view of strengthening the national organization though the funds will be largely used for taking care of the needy local communities.