

Red Cross Notes.

Those who handed in finished articles at the last meeting are: Mrs. Evers, 1 sweater, 2 pair mitts, 2 pair wristlets; Mrs. King, 1 sweater and 1 pair socks; Mrs. A. Amundson, 1 sweater; Mrs. Truscott, 2 sweaters; Mrs. Alm, 1 sweater; Mrs. Norstrum 1 sweater; Mrs. West, 1 pair socks; Mrs. Rice, 14 diagonal bandages.

The receipts from the sale of coffee and lunch last Thursday afternoon, amounted to $47.75.

Ladies! If you buy Empress coffee, do not throw the cans away when empty. Bring them up to the Red Cross rooms Thursday afternoon.

The ladies of the Red Cross will sell supper Friday night, this week, following the home talent play and dance at the opera house. Supper will be served in the lodge rooms upstairs.

Mrs. Will Carleton and Mrs. Chas. Houghten, of Cooperstown, came up last Thursday and spent the hours between trains with the ladies at the Red Cross rooms.

We still have use for a few more sewing machines. Can you spare yours one day each week?
