

The Red Cross celebration at Red Willow lake last Saturday was poorly attended. This was no doubt due to the fact that the farmers are "making hay while the sun shines," and Saturday being a busy day for business concerns prevented the townspeople from attending in large numbers. Judge Cole, of Fargo, delivered a very powerful and appealing address.

Sutton, Davenport, The...