

Agent West furnishes The Times with some interesting figures about the shipment of cream from this point during the year 1917. 1632 cans, containing 13,534 gallons of cream, were shipped from Binford in that time.