

FROM CHINA VIA THE LOCAL STATION.

Miss Inez Hemerlin started out on Tuesday to visit relatives in McHenry. She boarded the train here in the evening, and got beyond Mose, when the train became stuck in a snow bank, where the passengers were forced to spend the night. The snow plow came to the rescue however, and the passenger reached McHenry about noon next day.