

the fuel administrator.

School closed last Friday for the holidays. In the afternoon the pupils had a Christmas tree and gave a program, which was thoroughly enjoyed by the visitors. The high school pupils gave a play entitled, "Miss Gregg's Christmas Orphans," in which each character did his and her part very well. A collection of a few dollars was taken for the Red Cross, and a box of Christmas things was packed and sent to the orphan's home at Fargo. The vacation will last three weeks and the teachers left that afternoon for their homes, Miss Ewen to Carrington, Miss Rinde to Hoople and Miss Strehlow to Casselton.

The Questionnaires covering the