

The Binford school was opened on Monday morning after being closed for a period of three weeks while teachers and pupils were enjoying their annual holiday vacation. The teachers who had spent Christmas and New Year's visiting at their homes in other towns, returned last Saturday to resume work.

The ladies aid of the United Luth