

School Notes.

The High School Literary Society will give the following program on Friday, December 20th.

Roll Call—A Christmas Quotation.

Christmas Carol—When Joseph was Walking.

Reading—Selection from Dickens' Christmas Carol, Irene Pritz.

Talk—Ancient Christmas Customs, Florence Greenland.

Original Story—American Made Toys, Lydia Halling.

Talk—The European Peace Table, Ivar Knapp.

Song—Medley of Patriotic Airs.

The Binford school will be highly grateful to everyone who will donate magazines, old books, newspapers and scrap paper of any kind. The school is starting a Piano Fund and if it is to succeed, it needs the help of every person in the community, town and country. So if you have any old magazines or old papers, please save them for the school. If it is inconvenient for you to leave them at the school, notify the principal, who will provide for their removal. Do Your Bit For Your School In This Effective Way.

The high school room has a new sectional book case

The member of the Audabon Bird club, of the intermediate room, have received their club pins. Their first lesson on the Bobolink was studied Friday afternoon

School will close on Friday, December 20th, and will reopen on Monday, January 6th.

Parents are asked to not send the children to school before the ringing of the first bell.