

School Notes.

The Grammar Department has been very ambitious the past week. The members have succeeded in choosing class colors as well as a class motto.

The following program was given by this Department on Tuesday afternoon in honor of Abraham Lincoln's Birthday, Feb. 12, with Alton Dahlin as master of ceremonies.

- I. The Class Motto By Class
- The Class Colors By Class
- II. The Roll Call will be answered by mottos of Abraham Lincoln.
- III. Biography of Abraham Lincoln Evelyn Alfson
- IV. Reading Lincoln and the Civil War Katherine Norman
- V. Song "Fencing Tonight" Quartette
- VI. Story from life of Lincoln. Nellie Pritz
- VII. Recitation "The Flag is Passing By" Edna Lewis
- VIII. Song "Columbia the Gem of the Ocean" Quartette and School
- IX. Lincoln's Gettsburg Speech Harold Bakke
- X. Recitation Elias Halling
- XI. Song—"Star Spangled Banner" By the school

Among those invited to attend the exercises was the High School department.

Miss Edna Lewis entertained the seventh and eighth grades last week in honor of her 13th birthday.

The High School Literary Society will present the following program on Feb. 14:

- Roll Call—Current Events.
Song—Medley of Patriotic Airs.
Oration—Lincoln's Second Inaugural Address Ivar Knapp
Talk—Anecdotes of Lincoln Mabel Simonson
Reading from "The Crisis" Nellie Shaw
Song—America The Beautiful
Talk—Last Days of Lincoln Susie Shaw
Reading—Captain, My Captain Irene Pritz
Song—America for Me.
Visitors are always welcome.

The following is the Honor Roll for January:

Grade VII.

1. Alton Dahlin.
2. Harold Bakke.

Grade VIII.

1. Elias Halling.
2. Blanche Greenland.