
Binford School Notes.

Gladys Moen, Reporter

The Literary society held their first meeting Friday morning. The work of the society will enable the members to become more familiar with good literature, receive training in rhetorical work, public speaking, and parliamentary practice.

The Holing children, Dagny, Howell, Benny and Elvira, entered our school this week.

The Glee club met Friday afternoon and a new song was learned.

The Freshmen class has issued invitations to their school associates for an autumn party, October 15th.
