

Binford School Notes.

Gladys Moen, Reporter

The High School pupils enjoyed a little singing, a little conversation, and a treat to "kisses," in compliment of Evelyn Alfson's birthday last Thursday afternoon.

The following pupils joined our ranks Monday morning: Howard Lewis, Floyd King, Mark King, Manfred Knapp, George Standal, Thinka Olsgard and Emma Olson. They are now ready for a new variety of threshing.

Carl Norstrum returned to school Tuesday after a week of illness.

Miss Lannon of the Grammar department spent the week end at her home in Leal.

Work in water colors has been added to the grammar room program.

Miss Bjerke's pupils tendered her a candy and fruit surprise Friday afternoon.

Inez Greenland and Ivar Knapp, class of 1920, who are attending the University at Grand Forks, were remembered with greetings from the Binford High School.

Monday afternoon the Literary society of the Binford High School was re-organized. The following officers were elected: Irene Pritz, president; Howard Lewis, vice president; Florence Greenland, secretary-treasurer. The following program committee was appointed: Lydia Halling, Pearl Peterson and Susie Shaw.

In addition to other high school activities, a Glee club was organized. The officers are: Florence Greenland, president; Manfred Knapp, vice president; Susie Shaw, secretary-treasurer.

The reporter for the school notes is Gladys Moen. Harold Bakke is assistant reporter.