

The pupils of the local school were given a holiday today, as the teachers and members of the school board went to Cooperstown this morning to attend the Teachers' Institute in session there this week.