

family up in the near future.

"Shock troops" both male and female, organized among the residents of Binford, have gone "over the top" on several occasions the past week. In companies of five or more they have gone out and shocked the grain on several farms in the neighborhood and have aided materially in saving the crop. They are still prepared to resume the good work wherever needed, and whenever weather conditions allow will always be found ready to "carry on."

---