

The Sons of Norway gave their annual entertainment last Friday evening, and had a full house. The first part of the program was a concert given by Mr. and Mrs. Skarning, which was very much enjoyed. Then the baskets were sold and contents eaten, after which everybody danced for a few hours.