

The Times is printing the proceedings of the board of county commissioners held last week. This is printed purely as a matter of news, the Sentinel-Courier being the only paper in the county receiving pay for this work. The Times feels that our readers are entitled to know what the commissioners are doing, without being obliged to subscribe for the county seat weekly solely for the purpose of getting this information.

---