

perstown, will be present.

The ladies of the United Lutheran church will hold their annual sale and supper in the opera house, Friday evening, October 29. The supper will consist of fried chicken, meat balls, and other good things to eat. After supper the sale of fancy and useful articles made by the ladies during the past year, will be held.

H. H. Helland will be laid up for