

the war.

The members of the ladies' aid of the United Lutheran church more than proved themselves efficient in the art of preparing good things to eat last Friday evening, when they served about two hundred and eighty people with a hot chicken supper at the opera house. Practically every family in town was represented and all expressed themselves as more than pleased with the repast. The aid realized $480 from the proceeds of the supper and sale combined.
