

The village of Binford has an ordinance relating to snow left on side walks. All owners are notified to keep the walks abutting their property cleared of snow, or the village board will take action and the costs assessed to the property.