

the Jamestown high school.

Charles Boardman, well-known professional base ball pitcher, was in Binford yesterday on business for a St. Paul bank supply house. Mr. Boardman has retired from professional base ball, but will play occasionally during the summer with some of the fast semi-pro teams in the state.

While attending to business mat.