

Cooperstown was visited by another fire, last Saturday. This time the Strand Theatre was threatened. The fire started in the basement and before it was under control had reached the attic. Considerable damage was done.