

An appealing picture of the work of the Red Cross in "rebuilding the brains and bodies" of the war orphans of France and Belgium is presented in "The Heart of Humanity" Allen Holubar's greatest motion picture production which comes to the Strand theater at Cooperstown, July 2 and 3, with Dorothy Philips in the leading role.