

Griggs county people are watching with interest the progress of the trial in Judge Cole's court in Fargo, the case of State vs. Joseph Griesinger. Mr. Griesinger is charged with the attempted murder of Freeman Curtis on the morning of July 3rd. So far only circumstantial evidence has been introduced against the defendant, but new facts may be brot out soon. The attorneys for the prosecution are States Attorney Tutte and Lee Combs of Valley City, and for the defense, John Sad of Hannaford and Ludvig Aretander of Minneapolis.
