

Idaho.

A pleasant surprise was given to John Dahl last Saturday evening at the Dahl home east of town. Music and dancing was the diversion for the evening. At midnight a fine lunch was served after which the merrymaking continued. The guests presented John with a handsome rocking chair, the occasion being his birthday.