n S. J. Doyle, Democratic nominee Ð for the office of govornor, was here LS Tuesday forenoon and spoke to a e, ľ fair-sized gathering in front of the ľ-Maurer hotel, delivering his address y t- from an automobile. Mr. Doyle is is an uncontaminated victim of the flu. al owing to the ban on indoor public meetings during the epidemic. Mr. 11 Doyle is pleasing in appearance, re keen and forceful, and gave dence of being a gentleman who e had facts, figures and proofs at his h fingers ends. His speech was ina t tensely listened to. \mathbf{a} An antomobile accident, resulting