

ipients of many beautiful gifts.

Joe Ebentier motored over from Sutton Tuesday, to meet Mrs. Ebentier, who was returning on the train from a visit at Sanborn. Mr. Ebentier was nursing a stiff neck and bruised head as a result of a tumble from the door in the barn loft to a hayrack below, a distance of about eight feet. He was pulling on a rope which operates the hay carrier when the rope broke, causing him to fall backward.
