

E. A. Erickson, prominent resident of Steele county, has entered the race for representative from his district. Mr. Erickson has served the county for many years as a county official and is secretary of the Steele County Farmers' Mutual Insurance company. The district that he seeks to represent lies partly in Griggs county. His announcement appears in this issue.