

terests.

Private Nick Ethen arrived home Monday from Camp Dodge, having been honorably discharged from service. He was in heavy artillery service over there, and fought at the front three weeks, when his "outfit" was taken back on account of an outbreak of the flu among the men.

A new dance has been invented