

In response to a telegram that his brother, John, was dying, Ed Even-son left immediately for Crosby, Minnesota, to be at his bedside.

John Evers and son Norman went