

The Finley Light and Power company has received a new 40-kilowatt Western Electric generator which will be connected to the big 40-horse power engine, thus insuring the city of sufficient electric light current.

Don't neglect your storage batter-