

At a base ball meeting Monday evening, Oscar Greenland tendered his resignation as manager, and L. P. Larson was chosen to fill the vacancy. Herman Osen was elected secretary. No players have been signed yet, but there are several in view, who have expressed a willingness to come here. Manager Larson is getting in touch with these men and it is probable that a line-up will be completed in a short time.