

A term of court scheduled to begin this week was postponed, according to Judge C. M. Cooley, who was to have presided at the session. Judge Cooley found that there was but one jury case to be taken up at this session,⁴ and this was put over until a later term of court.
