

gladly take your order at this office.

Sentinel-Courier: M. F. Washburn, secretary of the Griggs County Farmers Mutual Insurance Company, reports that the company has written $60,000 worth of insurance during the month of November. The company is making rapid strides this year and it would appear quite evident that a most splendid showing would be made before long.