

A meeting of the members of the Nonpartisan league of the Fifth Commissioner district, was held at Mose last Saturday, to endorse a candidate for commissioner. E. E. Iverson and Ole L. Anderson were the men considered. The Times has been informed that Mr. Iverson declined to make the race, leaving the endorsement in favor of Anderson. This will make a three-cornered fight for the office. Otto Pritz, the present incumbent, is a candidate for reelection on the Republican ticket, T. H. Dahl, is a candidate on the Democratic ticket, and Mr. Anderson will run on stickers. The Times has a suspicion that gummed paper stock for these stickers was furnished by this office but were printed outside of the county. What was the use.
