

Old Settlers' Picnic

The committee in charge of arrangements for the Old Settlers' Picnic have been working faithfully the past few weeks, and are now ready to announce that the picnic will be pulled off at the Sheyenne river, east of Cooperstown, June 20. Vaughn Cowell has granted free use of the grounds and a general invitation is extended to all old settlers and families, and others also, to come and enjoy the day together.

The program as outlined to us will consist of short talks by Rev.s Sweger, Keedy, and Bennett; musical numbers by a male quartette and the high school girls, and readings by Frances Butler and Lillian Young.

There will be no ball game as the old diamond is this year helping to lick the kaiser by producing a crop.

It is expected that a large crowd will attend the picnic, and those who come should bring their lunch and prepare to stay the major portion of the day. Free coffee will be served at lunch time.

Let's all try and get out on this occasion and help the Old Settlers' celebrate their annual picnic in due and ancient form.
