

School Apportionment Is Made.

Schools of Griggs county will receive $4,729.90 as their apportionment from the state, according to announcement made by the state superintendent of public instruction, who has apportioned among 201,084 North Dakota school children $468,525.72 as the February apportionment of the state tuition fund.

There are 2,030 school children in Griggs, according to the figures announced, and the apportionment is made at the rate of $2.33 pro capita.