

FOURTH LIBERTY LOAN CAMPAIGN

---

The Amount of the Loan Will Probably be for $6,000,000,000—
Interest Same as Third.

---

The campaign for the fourth Liberty loan will open Saturday, September 28, and continue three weeks ending Oct. 19, it was announced by Secretary McAdoo.

In fixing three weeks as the length of the campaign for the fourth loan instead of the four weeks as in previous loans, treasury officials plan for a more extensive campaign. A shorter campaign it was said, will also enable more business men to enlist as workers.

The date of the campaign was announced now to allow campaign organizations to prepare for the sale of bonds and to prevent the planning of other campaigns.

Although official announcement has not been made, the amount of the loan probably will be $6,000,000,000 and the rate of interest which the bonds will bear 4 1-4 per cent. Should the treasury decide soon to place on the market certificates of indebtedness redeemable next June when taxes are paid, the amount of the loan may be reduced.

Secretary McAdoo has said he does not contemplate making an extended speaking tour for the fourth loan. President Wilson has received several invitations to make addresses during the campaign, but as yet has not indicated whether he will accept.

Officials in charge of the campaign have announced a special appeal will be made to farmers who subscribed liberally to the last loan.

---