

MORE DRAFT MEN CALLED

Griggs County Is Required to Supply
Seven Men on May 9th—Will Go to Camp Logan, Col.

North Dakota was called upon to send 581 additional national army men to training camp during the five day period commencing May 10, according to word received by Adjutant General A. G. Fraser from the provost marshal general. The men will be sent to Camp Logan, Colo., instead of Camp Dodge, Iowa.

Griggs county's quota of the 581 men called has been designated at 7 men by Adjutant General Fraser who notified the local boards Tuesday of the call and the number of men each county will be expected to raise. The men must be selected from Class 1, and men actually and assiduously engaged in the planting or cultivation of a crop will be given deferred entrainment as on the two previous calls.

Following are the names of the men called from Griggs county who are ordered to report at Cooperstown, May 9th:

- R. L. Rearick, Cooperstown.
- Chas. L. Lockner, Cooperstown.
- Martin Turnquist, Cooperstown.
- Melvin Myer, Binford.
- Adolph Christenson, Bagley, Minn.
- Albert Magnus Saby, Alberta, Can.
- George Arthur Van Alstine, Ramsey, Minn.
